Thank you so much Laura. We are planning to attend the Bree Newsome speech at AbTech tonight so I will just plan to pick her up today and give her a chance for a fresh start at bus use next week. I cannot say how much I appreciate your personal attention to this matter.

Gratefully,
Jessica

There was a sub bus driver on that bus yesterday and will be again today, so we are trying to get in touch with them to make the change for this afternoon, but it should definitely not be an issue next week. Let me know if there continue to be issues. Thanks!

Hello,

I'm writing to inquire about the bus assignment for my daughter [redacted]. [redacted] So far I have just been picking her up since it is the first week of school, but plan to switch to using the bus in the coming week. What bus does she need to take in order to be dropped off at [redacted]? Is it OK if she only takes the bus occasionally and not every day? Thanks for your help!

Sincerely,
Jessica Redford
