The biggest barrier we face, in my opinion, to building commission support for transit is the perception that our current ridership levels are so low, how can we justify investing more when so few people use the existing service.

Perhaps we implement a 30 or 60 day fare-free promotional campaign to spark interest and grow ridership. As ridership grows, it will make it more feasible to justify increased investment to improve service levels. Create a virtuous cycle, so to speak.

Correction: 11:30 on Friday, April 6th. There was an error typing the date.

Commissioners,

Jasmine brought a good idea to the table to maximize use of time by meeting with the 3 of you together to talk about this draft of the Transit Master Plan. She and I are available on Friday, April 16th, before 1:30pm. Is this an option for ya'll?

Thank you for your consideration,
Kim
