MessageTwo events within the last week have reminded us how important the c= ommunity is to our schools and how important the schools are to our communi= ty. Last week, the principal of Asheville Middle School was unable to a= llow a guest speaker's offer to meet with 8th grade students. The principal= made that decision based on the curriculum activities previously planned a= nd a review of the policy again. We were later informed that the original s= peaker could not attend and another speaker would instead be available. Aft= er reviewing the policy again, we determined that the new speaker did not a= lign with our policy currently in place. Aided by social media, the com= munity=E2=80=99s response was swift. By the day of our School Board Meeting= this week, the administration and board members were hearing about the com= munity concerns. In an ideal world, that issue of the guest speaker wo= uld have been the only news to rally our community this week. In an ideal w= orld, within this past week we could have deliberated on the topic, and either reaffirmed the decision and= the interpretations of policy, or revisited the decision and extended an i= nvitation to reschedule with Bree Newsome during her visit to Asheville. =

It is with deep sadness that our community suffered a great loss We = are forever indebted to the community for its show of support to the family= and the students, faculty, and staff of the Asheville community. With= regard to policy and public engagement, the school board stands committed = to collaborating with the public and to working with our administration, fa= culty, staff, students, and the stakeholders to revisit decisions and polic= ies in a timely manner. Our first priority is meeting the needs of the stud= ents, and this week their well-being in the aftermath of tragedy really nee= ded our focus and attention. Moving forward, we ask that the community = continue being engaged and passionate about their dedication and interest i= n our school district.
We will be revisiting the policies regarding the actions and message of gue= st speakers on an upcoming board agenda for board review. The public notice= s will be sent so that the community can participate. Thank you, again,=
