Subject: MMTC Retreat

I've added some resources as we discussed.Â

Here's the draft agenda, again.Â

In regards to the Comp Plan, there is a LOT of information relating to the various transportation elements that MMTC represents. I'm not sure how best to approach this except perhaps to open the topic generally as a goal to support the implementation of the Comp Plan and for the separate sub-committees to focus on what they most want to see realized.Â Â
