Subject: last call for workshop feedback, policy & advocacy ideas!

Howdy friends,
Just a final (no, really!) shout out in the hopes of picking your brains for ideas on how we continue the resilience conversation and to gather your policy & advocacy suggestions...I haven't heard from you yet!
HERE is a link to the workshop eval & suggestion form.

HERE is the link to our resources folder with workshop materials, especially check out this sweet graphic capturing Laura's resilience session that Caryn Hannah created.

I'll be following up with the full workshop attendance group once we have our final graphic documenting the afternoon brainstorm and discussion sessions with ideas on next steps and ideas completed in the coming weeks.

stay warm,
Kiera
