

Date : 9/21/2017 11:15:26 AM

From : "Ian Nelson"

To : "Melissa Hedt"

Subject : Re: policy

This part of the policy could be an issue, "In no instance shall a speaker who advocates unconstitutional or illegal acts or procedures be permitted to address students and no presentation or activities considered inconsistent with constitutional requirements or other applicable legal standards will be permitted." Â Often, civil disobedience requires illegal action.Â

Acoording to Wikipedia, Ms. Newsome was "charged with defacing monuments on capitol grounds<sup>[19]</sup>Â and taken to Richland County Jail.<sup>[20]</sup>Â The misdemeanor crime is punishable by a fine or a maximum jail sentence of three years.<sup>[19][21]</sup>Â A judge set a $3,000 bond for each". Â Â

On Thu, Sep 21, 2017 at 10:53 AM, Melissa Hedt <melissa.hedt@acsgmail.net> wrote:

Visiting Speakers Policy

--

Melissa Hedt
Executive Director of Teaching and Learning
Asheville City Schools

Office: \(828\) 350-6130350-6130)

Cell: \(828\) 747-1279747-1279)

--

Ian Nelson
Secondary Curriculum Coordinator
Asheville City Schools
(828) 350-6187