Hi 8th grade Social Studies :)

Sorry I missed most of your PLC today. I forgot to tell you one more important thing at the PLC today.Â

Bree Newsome is coming to speak with our students about social activism, which is amazing. However, we need to make sure 1. that our students know who she is and 2. that they write questions to ask her when she comes.Â

I found some articles that I liked that describe her actions and the context around them. The second article talks about how people are still trying to raise the confederate flag. It might be an interesting perspective to let our students discuss.Â

Bree Newsome is coming next Friday, Sept. 29. Can you all prep our kids for this?Â

Thanks,
KatieÂ
