The last I heard the Whole Foods attorney had not even asked his client about the October date we held for a month. I am not optimistic that this is a high priority for them as things currently stand. I can reach out to the lawyer and push if you want me to.

And Cathy, I feel like I've seen or heard ideas from staff on where the loading docks might go if they are moved. Could staff come to such a meeting with their recommendation for where the loading docks would best fit and could be permitted? If the universe of permissible places is limited, which is surely is, then we should focus the discussion on those options rather than all options.

Also, I think I remember that Robin was contemplating issuing whole foods an NOV. I'm not sure that's the right thing to do, but if we need to do it to get their attention, then we should consider it.

Joey is out of town so we can't have to coordinate. A 1:30pm in a mediation starting at 9:30 on Monday so we could either schedule it for 2:00 and hopefully 1:30pm will be done (and if not, go on without me) or before the meeting on Tuesday. I don't know if they plan to attend, obviously if we add more we can't have to notice this meeting and that would defeat the point of the initial conversation.

Chad and I had a call with Whole Foods this afternoon. I also talked to Chad separately about the conversations during check ins yesterday. We think it would be helpful to have a call on Monday afternoon or a short meeting on Tuesday morning prior to the Whole Foods meeting to prepare.

Should anyone else be on this email? Is Julie also attending?

Cathy or Major - with your permission can Joey set something up?

Joey - I am not available on Monday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30.

Joey is out of town so weâ€™ll have to coordinate.â€ Iâ€™m in a mediation starting at 9:30 on Monday so we could either schedule it for 2:00 and hopefully Iâ€™ll be done (and, if not, go on without me) or before the meeting on Tuesday. Iâ€™ve added Gwen and Julie to this. I donâ€™t know if they plan to attend, I do.â€ Obviously if we add more weâ€™ll have to notice this meeting and that would defeat the point of the initial conversation.

Mclean,

At the meeting yesterday, we decided to reconvene with Whole Foods in January to discuss what progress has been made on operational changes and what long-term solutions Whole Foods and the landlord may be able to offer. Can you please identify dates in January that work for those included on this email and let me know. I can then coordinate with the Whole Foods and landlord representatives to secure a date. I am generally available starting the week of January 14. The first two weeks of January are not good for me.

Thanks, Chad

Hey Chad:

I apologize for the delayed response; no excuse! I just left you a voicemail about this. I've got depositions and a hearing in federal court in NYC the week of Oct. 22, so I don't know if the Oct. 23 date is going to work and, frankly, I haven't even checked with my clients on their calendars because I've been buried (I recognize that's a lousy excuse because y'all are all busy too and I know this is an important issue for you).

I'll check on the Oct. 23 date with my clients, but I'm pretty sure I'm not going to be able to squeeze in a trip to Asheville that week. Do y'all have a few dates in November you can provide me to I can try to get schedules coordinated on our end?

Thanks,

John

John,

Just left you a voicemail at your office. I'm following up on the email below and discussions you and Robin have previously had about setting up a meeting to discuss a solution to the issues on Maxwell Street in Asheville. We've polled all the City folks and have identified Tuesday, October 23 from 10:00am to 12:00pm as a time that works for everyone on our side. By chance, would that day and time work for you and your client to meet in Asheville?

I'm in and out of meetings today, but as noted in my voicemail, my direct office line is 919.783.2896 and my cell is 919.413.0556. Copied on this email is Sabrina Rockoff who will be serving as the Interim City Attorney once Robin takes her new position next week.

Thanks, Chad

John, We did find some old plans to change the Green Life site plan, but it appears that while a larger buffer was proposed, the delivery trucks would still use Maxwell Street, so this is likely not a solution. I have talked with Shannon Tuch (copied here), who is the City planner most familiar with this matter, and we believe there are workable alternatives that could provide a solution. Let me know when you have spoken to your client and hopefully we can find a time to meet/conference to discuss. Thanks.
