Wasn't sure if you had responded to Wooten yet or not but I spoke with LuAnn today and the 18 months is the time that we have to apply for the grant from the time that we get the waiver.
For example: If we receive the waiver in November then we would be good to apply for the 2016 grant cycle and then if we didn't get it we would still be able to use the same waiver to apply for the 2017 waiver (if i did the math right, it's late :))
So to clarify, the 18 months doesn't have anything to do with the project completion date, just the application.
I can start working on the waiver as soon as i get home and i think we can turn it around pretty quickly if we can push the commissioners to not accept ownership until we have the waiver approved.
thanks!

There was the master plan menu that Davis gave us so we could piece meal what we wanted I can resend that to you when I get to my computer if you don't have Off top of my head I think a full redo was 75-85k but I'll double check. Those numbers are from beginning of year but would think they are still close .
