Thanks Kate and thanks again for your time today. Lots of things to think about, and I am so excited for the opportunity.

On a side note, you mentioned that you are hosting an event for Sheneika. I already sent her a check but would love a chance to hear her speak and discuss her vision. Can I invite myself to your event?Â

Dear RJC Colleagues,Â

Please share the attached notices with your organizations and networks.Â

There are two fabulous events happening that I hope you will support:

1. The Opening of the Americans Who Tell the Truth Exhibit with artist, Robert Shetterly and activist, Bree Newsome on Saturday, September 30 from 4:30-6:30 pm. This is a ticketed event and the tickets are going fast! Come see the opening of a show featuring over 50 portraits of brave men and women who are leaders in racial, environmental and social justice and hear from their creator, Robert Shetterly. Bree Newsome's portrait will be unveiled.Â
Tickets available at AWTT2017@eventbee.com

2.Â FREE Public Event Â - a conversation with activist Bree Newsome!Â

Any donations collected will benefit CoThinkk and The Asheville Branch of the NAACP Location: AB Tech, Ferguson Auditorium 340 Victoria Rd., AshevilleÂ

Friday Sept. 29th

Bree Talk and Q & A, 5:30 - 7:00 pm

Doors open at 5:00 pm

Questions? Contact Ellie Richard at Education of Engaged Citizens Â - elliebhope@gmail.com

Thank you for spreading the word and sharing these important events. I hope to see you there!
