Hi April,

I am sure you remember me as a teacher at Asheville High. There is a lot of talk in the African American community about Bre Newsome being dis-Invited from AMS. They (several community members) have asked me to cover the story on my blog. My blog (www.nappythoughts.com) is a national blog, and I would hate to write the community's frustration without first understanding your decision. Would you be willing to speak to me for 10 mins via phone or at your office?

If you are too busy to talk:

Can you explain if and why Bre Newsome was dis-invited?

Was this your decision? Did you receive pressure from parents? Or central office?

Do you believe that Asheville Middle School Students would benefit from understanding this national debate?

What is your individual stance on the removal of confederate monuments?

I know you have a lot coming at you, but I'd like to gain a deeper understanding. My article will be syndicated by the Asheville Grit. I plan to post within 48 hours...

As always thanks for all you do...

Thanks,
Aisha
