Has anyone contacted an exclusion company?

Hi Diana,

You haven't missed any large meetings. We've been in contact with some individual businesses and property owners about issues related to trash storage and pick-up. There are still a lot of issues and we're getting complaints that the rat populations have multiplied.

We are going to continue to work on the problem areas with the parties responsible.

Thank you,
Dana

Hi Dana,

How are you?

What is the status on Langen please?

Thanks!
