Subject: Inquiry about damages/closings from adjoining construction

Hey Dawa,

Hope you're doing well. After finding out about some of the damages and closings for businesses like Smokey's and Mountain Credit Union due to construction of nearby hotels, I was wondering about how such things are handled,

Do the city's Building Safety staff deal with this? Is it just left up to the court system? I've received a lot of questions from readers about this, and it would be great to give people some clarification. Who's the best staffer to talk to?

Sincerely,
