I got there after all visible city staff left. I listened to witnesses. There are questions about capacity (3 rooms a red roof), funding, and staff action.

I helped how I was instructed with clean up.

A neighbor said they were going to the jail. I asked about numbers, they named 4.

Gm! No, it's not typical to have no response. Usually my colleagues will at least acknowledge receipt. I'll let you know if I see anything today.

I'm trying to acknowledge that each of us is doing what is right in our own way, but this journey has been very hard.

Apr 16, 7:22 AM

Also Sheneika is concerned about camps in parks in black neighborhoods

Yes it is very hard. Excruciating when you see up close.

Another way to look at it: Our city has been exploited by tourism industry and will continue to be exploited by people with wealth staking claim for their multiple homes, and some are doing that on purpose in advance of climate catastrophe. Another: We are the health and human services hub for WNC with a good va. Where are people expected to go?

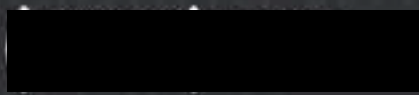

Apr 16, 7:20 AM

Exactly. It is interesting the narratives we are choosing and how this gets framed

We understand the tension on parks and named that there are also a large number of African American people on the streets.

MLK and Aston? Cherry street in proximity to the last remaining lower-income homes near montford? I get that.

Thanks so much. I talked to Antanette and Sheneika yesterday. Antanette was also puzzled by the Council vote. Sheneika said she doesn't want our City exploited and feels that people are not choosing resources given. I tried to explain the lack of shelter and a plan and the need for more time but not sure where she is. I wasn't able to reach anyone else yesterday.

I heard in a meeting today when I was pushing to pause the evictions so that we can create a genuine safety plan and housing plans for individuals. I was told City Council made the decision last week to evict campers. Can you tell me more about how all that happened?

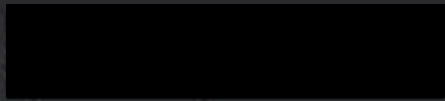

• Apr 14, 9:30...

When can we talk? I need more information to understand.

Not understanding about what you mean by questions about capacity?

• Apr 16, 9:35...

Capacity: if campers are given an option to go to a shelter or hotel, how many rooms are there and how long can they stay? Same thing we've been discussing.

Apr 17, 7:27 AM

Yes I have that same question in to Cathy Ball right now. I know they did move some people to hotels

• Apr 17, 8:32

Yes we get that too and again reiterated that we want their to be time to make a good plan that helps people and just doesn't move the problem around making it worse.

• Apr 16, 7:25...

When I say I get that, I know we still have to have a plan and follow it. We can communicate with neighborhoods.
