Hey sorry to text you on a Sunday! [redacted] told [redacted] you were paying for a hotel room for him - is that right?

3/20/22, 7:38 PM

No that's not right, we discussed possible options. One being my programs funding. I'll clear that up with him tomorrow

We are still waiting on the higher ups to ok it.

Gotcha. Well if you want to brainstorm ways to spend that money this week I'm so happy to 😊

3/21/22, 7:50 AM

It's not about ways to spend it, it's about grants and if the spending lines up with it. Also Sunrise isn't willing to put our name on any hotel room for anyone 🙄 it's a hard no lol I'll call you after while!

Sounds good!

3/24/22, 7:15 AM

Good morning, I took 10 to a phone over yesterday because his case manager we need to be able to contact him and he'll be back on the street that has three months of service so there shouldn't be any excuse. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] there are a couple that's going to Super 8 they were told they can only take six bags with them they have a whole storage building full of stuff in the room is there any way we could pay for the first month rent on a storage unit so they don't lose all their belongings since they're so close to an apartment? She said they can pay it once their monthly check gets here and there also so close to their place to live.

102*

Thanks 🙏

3/24/22, 8:34 AM

Great about the phone! I don't have a way to pay for storage unfortunately:( Sue had said the other day that maybe Sunrise could do a social media post about fundraising for those move in costs for people - maybe that could be an option for storage units? Do you know when they get their check?

I'll find out !

Their check comes on the 1st and don't they move on the 25th or the 28th?

Could their stuff possibly stay in the room until the 1st?

They moved Monday which is the 28th

Hey Emily so [REDACTED] from the shelter just text me and he was wondering if we're still buying Greyhound tickets he would like to go home to High Point I believe he is one without a housing option.

Yes! Today's our last day for money so ideally we could go ahead and buy a ticket today. Can you help him figure out which bus/date and how much and let me know?

Yes I will.

3/30/22, 10:15 AM

Did [REDACTED] make it?

We started in his room at 9am and he has not been seen. I'm hoping he has gone for his intake???? His room is a wreck

He told us he had a ride there?

Media will be here when?

10:30

We're meeting in 101

Ok lol I'm point person for that apparently

Would you like me to come down or just no?

Just I just wait until there out and about?

Should*

I don't know actually! I think just hang tight and I'll let you know?

Ok sounds good.

Sue just wants to make sure Sunrise Sunrise represented correctly

Totally - it's a dream that you're here!

I'm guessing they are over in the dog park with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

Hey so there is a guy at the front desk and he is saying that there is a girl dead in his room he is not a participant he just rented a room at the hotel so he's calling the law

I wanted you to be aware since all the media is here

3/30/22, 12:57 PM

[REDACTED] said he has a place and would just need help with move in. Is it too late?

Did you call Salvation Army? I can do it if not, just didn't want to double up

[REDACTED] did his intake and checked in he needs to come back in the morning to get a couple things and to get his stuff out of the filing cabinet
